

Draw the Lewis structure for each of the following molecules or ions.
 Write out your calculations for valence electrons and be sure to check that each structure has:

- The correct number of valence electrons.
- Octets around each atom (duets for hydrogens)

